

Amherst Breeding Bird Survey: Mill River

Amherst Breeding Bird Survey
Route Name: Mill River
Site #	Owner 1990	Vegetation 1990	Description 1990	Description and Habitat Notes 2009	Latitude	Longitude
M1	AmConLand	open floodplain hardwoods	180' E of E end of Robert Francis steel footbridge; spike is on the back (S) side of an 18" red oak which is 8' S of trail	s. side of foot bridge, sign on back of 24" oak, probably no major change in vegetation	42.4161	-72.5114
M2	AmConLand	open hardwoods with steep bank down to Cushman Br	200' W of W end of Robert Francis steel footbridge under an 18" dead elm 8' S of main trail	just above mill foundation/ narrowing of water course, probably no major change. (elm gone) Trail made handicap access some time ago, but still gravel probably no impact	42.4158	-72.5131
M3	AmConLand	moist hardwoods with scattered pines near pond	in woods of Puffer's swimming area, 90' NW of tool shed under S side of 30" pine	n of road, s of pond, nw of shed "moist" ? Certainly lower than road and pond, probably no major change, but pine is now 34"	42.4163	-72.5167
M4	AmConLand	hemlock bank next to marsh in backwater of pond	E side of pond on round-pond trail 360' N of State Street under N side of 12" double hemlock west side of trail above steep bank down to pond	north from road on trail, w side of trail across from large cement blocks, probably no major change, but present tree is single 19" with beaver chew at base.	42.4170	-72.5160

Amherst Breeding Bird Survey: Mill River

Amherst Breeding Bird Survey: Mill River

